Telephone No. 40.

Entered at the Maysville, Ky., Post-Office as second-class Mail Matter.

What do we care? Luke Mc-Luke is back on the job.

President Wilson should quit kicking Congress around.

The psychological pay envelope isn't legal tender in the United States.

A man's pathway in life isn't strewn with roses when he realizes that he hasn't a cent.

The quickest way to stop the crucifixion of business, which has made millions idle, is to defeat Democratic Congressmen. In Ohio we have 19 of them.—Waverly (O.) News.

Exports of gold will continue so long as we import more merchandise than we export. The decrease in exports is the most ominous evidence of the failure of the "competitive tariff."—Philadelphia Public Ledger.

FINE FOR THE GREAT AMERICAN HOG

The American hog is getting a large share of the $30,000,000 wheat crop, and the breakfast bacon market will not be depressed. A prosperous year for farmers, but a precipitous road for consumers.—Courier-Journal.

HOW THE TARIFF WORKS IN INDIANA

There are 16 furniture factories in Shelbyville. Not one of these factories is now running a full force of men and working full time. Some of them are working but 36 hours a week; others 40 hours, and some of them have laid off and closed for a week at a time. There are more vacant houses in Shelbyville at this time than since 1896. Twelve months ago there were no vacant houses in Shelbyville. Now there are probably more than a hundred. At the time of the 1912 election six of the factories of Shelbyville were running a full force of men and working until 9 o'clock at night.—Indiana State Journal.

THE QUITTER.

Just as the twilight deepened into dusk, hushing the cheerful note of the day-birds and calling forth the night-birds with their querulous plaint, a June bug stirred into activity with its rasping tattoo.

A hungry robin, not yet abed, heard the noise and started in pursuit. The June bug fled in flight. In a straight line it flew. As the unseeing bird rapidly covered the gap, the June bug sustained the word note that sounded not unlike the human cry of terror. It was the cry of defeat. The robin won.

Had the insect not cried out its defeat before defeat came, it would have lived. The robin could not see in the darkness. It traced its victim by its own noise.

And so it is with some of us humans. We acknowledge defeat before defeat comes. A great philosopher has said that man is his own worst enemy. A quitter's own fears chase him and run him to the ground.—Cincinnati Post.

RAKING.

Right Up To The Minute.
"Why do we ask the Lord to give us each day our daily bread?" asked the Sunday school teacher.
"Because we want it fresh," promptly answered a bright little fellow.

ERNST CHOICE OF KENTUCKY REPUBLICANS FOR SENATOR

Richard P. Ernst, Candidate for Republican Nomination U. S. Senator.

Covington, Ky.—(Special).—Richard P. Ernst, who is a candidate for the Republican nomination for United States Senator, is a native Kentuckian, having been born in Covington in 1853, where he has lived all of his life, and where his parents lived.

He received his primary education in the schools at Covington and afterward graduated from "Old Centre" College, at Danville, with the Class of '78, winning the valedictory honors of his class. Later he graduated from the Law School of the University of Cincinnati, in a class of which William H. Taft was a member. Shortly after completing his studies he married Miss Susan Brent, granddaughter of Chas. Brent, who was for many years a prominent citizen of Paris, Ky. They have two children, one son and one daughter, now grown.

Mr. Ernst, because of his splendid business ability and attractive personality, early in life became prominently identified with the business interests of Northern Kentucky, and through his Covington and Cincinnati law offices has attained great success in his profession.

Life-Long Republican.

Politically Mr. Ernst has been a life-long Republican. For many years he has devoted both his time and his means to a very liberal degree for the success of his party. He was for many years a member of the State Central Committee, was its chairman when the party achieved its most notable triumphs in the state, has been delegate to several national conventions, and in many other ways has served his party, often at great personal sacrifice. He has been able to maintain terms of friendship with all elements and factions in his party, and if nominated will receive the support of Republicans and independents without regard to any former personal prejudices or factional differences.

Interested in Church and School.

Mr. Ernst is a member of the First Presbyterian Church of Covington, and an elder in that congregation. For many years he has been President of the Covington Young Men's Christian Association, which is one of the most successful and widely popular institutions of its kind in the country, as it appeals to boys of all denominations. Mr. Ernst retains a wide interest in educational affairs. He is not only a member of the Board of Trustees of his alma mater, "Old Centre," but is also a trustee of the Western College for Women, at Oxford, O., and is a trustee of Lane Seminary, at Cincinnati, one of the oldest schools of theology in the United States. In this connection he has been very liberal in offering prizes to stimulate the student and is usually responsible for the schooling of at least one young man every year. He also takes an active personal interest in all local charitable institutions.

Strong With Workmen.

Mr. Ernst has always had many warm friends among the working boys of Covington, and enjoys great popularity with them. He has always aided them in their troubles, and has been a very influential factor in his work of making their relations with their employers pleasant and profitable.

A Business Campaign.

Mr. Ernst's candidacy will appeal strongly to the business men of Kentucky. Successful himself and identified with men who have succeeded in commercial and professional life, he offers his services to the state at a time when there is a wide-spread demand for high-class business men to take a part in politics, and to offer to the state and to the country that degree of business skill and experience which is so necessary to success in private life.

There is a growing conviction that business interests have not been fairly and intelligently represented in the councils of government—that gentlemen, well disposed, no doubt, but without practical knowledge of commercial affairs, and who themselves have not won their spurs in business and professional careers, have attempted to legislate along theoretical rather than practical lines, and that as a result of these experiments all departments of business and the public generally have suffered.

Mr. Ernst, if nominated and elected, will take to his Senatorial office not only a mind trained by education and experience, but that wide, practical viewpoint which will enable him to act at all times to the best interest of the farmer, the manufacturer and the consumer.

Conservative Politically.

It may be stated in this connection that Mr. Ernst, in his political management, has always treated his Democratic opponents with such a spirit of fairness and courteous consideration that he has the confidence and respect of members of that party to a most unusual degree.

The annual convention of the Farmers' Educational and Co-operative Union of America will be held at Versailles three days, beginning today.

A reorganization of the rural route system of Kentucky, embracing the installation of automobiles, is being considered by Postmaster General Burleson.

Shipments of pig iron from the South territory are steady, and indications are for a revival of buying by large consumers.

A twenty-four-hour guard of all substations in Chicago's sanitary district has been established to prevent violence by striking electricians.

THIS BEATS SWATTING.

Pyrethrum powder burnt in a house stupefies a fly until you can sweep him up and put him where he belongs. A little of this burnt in the rooms in the morning—after which the rooms should be aired—will make the house exempt from flies all day. Twenty drops of carbolic acid dropped on a hot shovel or on any piece of warm iron creates a vapor that lays flies low. The common mignonette plant grown in jars and placed in a room makes things unpleasant for flies. A handy thing is white clover. It is strange, but flies hate the odor of white clover. Have a little of this around in a vase and you will notice that the flies have business in other directions. This clover should be renewed every day or so, for when it becomes dry it irritates the nostrils. A cheap and effective poison not dangerous to human life, is bichromate of potash in solution. One drachm dissolved in two ounces of sweetened water and placed in shallow dishes will call the long roll for any number of the pests.

GIRLS OF YESTERDAY.

A ruralist visiting New York is moved to write, after Francois Villon, a poem in which the refrain is "where are the girls of yesterday?" He finds the New York girls of seventeen rugged, blasé, hobble-skirted, risqué. Where, he asks is youth to be found blossoming in pristine purity? Youth with the freshness of flowers washed with dew? Well, not upon Fifth avenue, perhaps. But all across the Continent from Maine to California. Here in Kentucky such youth is plentiful enough. Here in Frankfort it is not unusual.

Yesterday is only a little while ago. The world is old. Human nature has undergone slight modifications, but little essential change. We can imagine the country gentleman visiting Rome, or Athens, Carthage, Syracuse, Alexandria, Babylon, Nineveh, and having the same view of the times that the gentleman from Sleepy Hollow expresses in the New York Times.

Youth makes the world go round. Wherever it is poisoned its dynamic force is destroyed. But always it is pure enough when we get away from the "cities of dead souls," and it is within narrow social limits that it is poisoned even in cities.—Frankfort State Journal.

TEN COMMANDMENTS FOR CLEANLINESS.

New York.—The tenement house committee of the Brooklyn bureau of charities, has issued these ten commandments:

- I. Thou shalt honor thy neighborhood and keep it clean.
- II. Remember thy cleaning day and keep it wholly.
- III. Thou shalt take care of thy rubbish heap, else thy neighbor will bear witness against thee.
- IV. Thou shalt keep in order thy alley, thy back yard, thy hall and thy stairway.
- V. Thou shalt not let the wicked fly breed.
- VI. Thou shalt not kill thy neighbor by ignoring fire menaces or by poisoning the air with rubbish and garbage.
- VII. Thou shalt not keep thy windows closed day and night.
- VIII. Thou shalt covet all the air and sunshine thou canst obtain.
- IX. Because of the love thou bearest thy children thou shalt provide clean homes for them.
- X. Thou shalt not steal thy children's right to health and happiness.

LUKE MCLUKE SAYS

You never can tell. Lots of girls with beef trust wrists have soup bone ankles.

Any ice man can tell you that the more hair a woman wears when she is on the street the more she wears on the bedroom dresser when she is in the house.

The Truth isn't always night. When a girl has a face like an old saddle tell her that she is beautiful and she will believe you. But if you tell her that she is homely she will know that you are a wall-eyed liar.

We should love our neighbors. And there would be more of it done if their husbands were not around all the time.

When a man has a toothache it is the only Genuine six-cylinder, ball-bearing, drop-forged, self-starting, toothache ever invented, and he doesn't mind telling you so.

Adam blamed it on an Apple. But nowadays it is a Peach that usually starts all the trouble.

The old-fashioned girl who used to be ashamed to blush now has a daughter who has to stop in front of every mirror she sees and add a little color to her cheeks.

When a man loves a fat girl the reason he knows she isn't going to get any fatter is because her mother only weighs 293 pounds.

A grass widow is never as green as she acts.
The reason a girl is afraid to go out without a petticoat on a sunny day is because she doesn't care how big her shoes are as long as her hat is small.

HELPLESS AS BABY

Down in Mind Unable to Work, and What Helped Her.

Summit Point, W. Va.—Mrs. Anna Belle Emey, of this place, says: "I suffered for 15 years with an awful pain in my right side, caused from womanly trouble, and doctored lots for it, but without success. I suffered so very much, that I became down in mind, and as helpless as a baby. I was in the worst kind of shape. Was unable to do any work."

I began taking Cardui, the women's tonic, and got relief from the very first dose. By the time I had taken 12 bottles, my health was completely restored. I am now 48 years years old, but feel as good as I did when only 16.

Cardui certainly saved me from losing my mind, and I feel it my duty to speak its favor. I wish I had some power over poor, suffering women, and could make them know the good it would do them."

If you suffer from any of the ailments peculiar to women, it will certainly be worth your while to give Cardui a trial. It has been helping weak women for more than 50 years, and will help you, too.

Try Cardui. Your druggist sells it.

BURDENS LIFTED

From Maysville Backs—Relief Proved By Lapse of Time.

Backache is a heavy burden; Nervousness, dizziness, headache, Rheumatic pain; urinary ills; All wear one out. Often effects of kidney weakness. No use to cure the symptoms. Relief is but temporary if the cause remains. If it's the kidneys, cure the cause. Doan's Kidney Pills are for kidney ills.

Read about your neighbor's case. Here's Maysville testimony. The kind that can be investigated. Mrs. John E. Burns, Maysville, Ky., says: "The statement I gave before when I publicly recommended Doan's Kidney Pills, still holds good. I know that this remedy is just as represented as it has been used by one of my relatives with satisfactory results. Doan's Kidney Pills were procured at Wood & Son's Drug Store."

Mrs. Burns is only one of many Maysville people who have gratefully endorsed Doan's Kidney Pills. If your back aches—if your kidneys bother you, don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—ask distinctly for Doan's Kidney Pills, the same that Mrs. Burns recommends—the remedy backed by home testimony. 50c all stores.
